Special to the Gazette.

Waco, Trx., Aug. 4.—At 9:20 to-night the frame house on North Fourth street occupied by Max Landmans was totally destroyed by fire. Part of contents were saved. Landman had insurance of $500 on the furniture. The house belonged to Mrs. Otis Hockett, a non-resident of Waco. A house next door was slightly burned.

APPEAL IN THE RODGERS RAPE CASE GRANTED.

Judge Bower Sick-His Political Prospects. Diptheria in South Dallas-Home Star Club Revived.

Special to the Garette.

Dallass, Tilk, Aug. 5.—To-day the appeal in the Rodgers rape case was taken and granted in Judge Tucker's court. Rodgers was convicted of the crime of rape and given the death penalty. He raped a tenyear-old child Rhoda bexter. His afterney? wishing the case but off as long as possible, asked that the court of appeals the talgrants assessing should ness on the at the Galveston session should less on the case. The state asked that it should go to Tyler in October, and Judge Tucker sent the appeal there. Rodgers will eventually die on the gallows.

Althou Bower 161.

Judge Bower of the county court has returned from his fishing trip with County Clork Boy Scott, and is very fil. If he lives Bower will be a candidate for prosecuting attorney in 1892. His antagonists will be A. W. Wosencraft, the celebrated captain of the Dallas light artillery and present city attorney, or Larry Milley, chief assestant in the Dallas light artillery and present city attorney, or barry Miller, chief assistant in the office of Col. David A. Williams, and one of the most fearless presecutors and brilliant orators before the bar of Dallas county. John P. Gillespie, a well known and capable gentleman, will answer in the light for the law and order element, and has much the tace three times already. Try, 173 again, is his mosto.
